BIOGRAPHY

Carlos Garo, born in Madrid on October 12, 1986, is a Spanish composer, multi-instrumentalist and independent producer, internationally recognized as one of the driving forces behind the New Age genre in Spain.

He is the creator of six studio releases: The Fifth Palace (2012), Entrance To the Parallel Universe (2015), Sky Dancer (2017), Dream Landscape (2019), Samsarak (2023) and Mystical Origin (2025).

In 2012, he released his debut EP The Fifth Palace, blending World Music, folk, rock and symphonic influences, achieving nationwide recognition in Spain. His second album, Entrance To the Parallel Universe (2015), is a conceptual work that merges ethnic, spiritual, electronic and cosmic elements. In 2016, he was nominated at the Hollywood Music in Media Awards for his song "Desert" and toured across Spain alongside British composer Terry Oldfield, brother of Mike Oldfield, with whom he later collaborated on the album Sky Dancer (2017). The record, combining the essence of New Age with rock and dance influences, became one of the genre's standout releases of the year and led both artists to perform together on tour.

In 2019, his fourth album, Dream Landscape, generated significant attention across the U.S. and Europe, earning recognition at Los Angeles' The Akademia Awards for Best Ambient/Instrumental Song with "Omen". That same year, he became a member of the Latin Recording Academy (LATIN GRAMMY®).

In 2020, he received the Akademia Artist Vision Award 2020 in the United States and released the single "Time to Fly" featuring Enrique Ramil. He also joined the official artist programs of PRS Guitars and RightOn! Straps.

In 2022, he traveled to London to master the single "Nirvana" at the legendary Abbey Road Studios, as the first preview of his album Samsarak, which later received a bronze medal at the Global Music Awards.

Samsarak was released in March 2023 and presented in Madrid, gaining international recognition and winning a Hollywood Independent Music Award 2023 for the track "Karma". That same year, he became a voting member of the Recording Academy (GRAMMY® Awards).

In April 2025, he received the Europa 2025 Award for Artistic Excellence, sharing recognition with personalities such as Rafa Nadal and Ágatha Ruiz de la Prada. One month later, he released Mystical Origin, a collection of ten instrumental compositions blending tribal sounds and Chill Out, recognized as Best Album of May by One World Music Radio (United Kingdom). In addition, his track "The Pharaoh" received a nomination at the for Best World Song.

Currently, Carlos Garo presents a new internationally-oriented single composed alongside renowned British vocalist Miriam Stockley. Inspired by the concept of Nyumba ("home"), the project brings together musicians and collaborators from different continents, including an African choir recorded in Nigeria, a flute session recorded in India, and mastering by Tim Oliver at the legendary Real World Studios in the United Kingdom, founded by Peter Gabriel, further reinforcing the global dimension of his music.
